REPORT NO.

1. All officers of the Yugoslav Army are being urged to study English. English classes for officers were begun in November 1951 in the city of Vrsac, in the Voivodina. They consist of four hours of lessons daily and are taught by a certain Professor Sucevic.
2. The epaulets worn by officers of the Yugoslav Army will be abolished shortly. Insignia of officer rank will henceforth be worn on the uniform sleeve.
3. About 300 persons, most of them convicts, are reportedly working on the enlargement of the airfield at Batajnica.
